

Taylor Peters ~

I'm very eager to begin coaching at Sherwood ice arena. I was a part of the Portland Winterhawks when the Winterhawks Amateur Hockey Association (WAHA) was launched in 2009 and I've seen the growth in the hockey community every year since.

I was born and raised In Vancouver, BC and have been playing hockey since I was 5 years old. In 2008, I moved to Portland to play for the Winterhawks full time. After playing over 300 games with the Winterhawks, winning a league championship in 2013, and attending NHL development and main camps along the way, I was fortunate enough to sign an entry-level contract with the Dallas Stars. In my first year with the Texas Stars, we won the Calder Cup AHL Championship. During my career, I've spent my off-seasons instructing at hockey camps in Portland and Vancouver. I'm excited to give back to the community that afforded me so many opportunities.
